Fantastic trip thru Upper Mustang

My daughter and I had a fantastic 10 day trip from Kathmandu to Pokhara and then thru the Upper Mustang region with Dorchi and his team in April 2024. Dorchi is a great guy--thoughtful, gives great background and history, and took great care of us. The Upper Mustang region is pretty spectacular and less tourist compared to other regions. We visited many Buddhist temples and various small towns as we trekked through this high desert region surrounded by the Himalayas. I can recommend Dorchi and an his team at Malung Treks more highly--they made for an unforgettable trek that we will always remember. We had an amazing time.

Another wonderful journey

I traveled four times with Malung treks: Everest base camp + Gokyo, Annapurna, Jiri to Everest base camp and Tsum Valley + Manaslu. The plans for a fifth time are in the making. All is very well organized, professional and with good English-speaking guides. If circumstances ask for improvisation (due to weather conditions or something like that) new plans are made together and I've never been disappointed. Also: no helicopter, friendly people, and a lot of effort is made to provide a beautiful journey in good companionship. Nepal is a wonderful country, but me going for a fifth time also because organizing it is made easy and comfortable by Malung Treks.

Amazing Trek to Langtang Valley

Me and my friends have been trekking with Prakash to the Langtang Valley for 8 days in total. It was an incredible experience, we had the best guide ever and I can recommend it 100% to everyone who loves to trek. Prakash is such a nice person and the organization Malung Treks was perfect.

Amazing Trek & Guide!!!

My journey to EBC didn't start yesterday, last week, or even last year. I started over 10 years ago when my father trekked to EBC. Since then, it has been a priority to trek there as well. Malung Treks & Expeditions were AMAZING in helping me reach this goal. They took care of everything. Topping that, our guide, Bal Kumar Rai, was FANTASTIC. He was friendly, knowledgeable, kind, and funny, and took great care of us during our trek. He is experienced in all the Nepal regions, which gives him a diverse sense of the expedition you choose. For us, we not only got to trek, but we got local recommendations of things we should do during our trek which became some of the highlights of our time in Nepal. I cannot stress enough how happy we are with Bal, and how he is not only a wonderful guide, but has become a respected friend. We appreciate his help and guidance, and the help of the entire Malung Team in making this expedition memorable and exciting.
